4 Policy Principles

4.1 UOW Enterprises is committed to ensuring that privacy is protected and will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the collection, use, disclosure and handling of information by UOW Enterprises complies with all relevant laws.

5 Collection of Information

5.1 UOW Enterprises will collect information in an open manner, including informing individuals why the information is being collected and how it will be used.

5.2 UOW Enterprises will only collect information lawfully, and for a purpose that is directly relevant and reasonably necessary to carry out its operations.

5.3 UOW Enterprises will ensure that information collected is relevant, accurate and does not intrude to an unreasonable extent on the personal affairs of the individual.

5.4 UOW Enterprises will collect information directly from the individual to which it relates, unless:

i. The person has consented to information being collected on their behalf by someone else;

ii. The person is under 16 years of age; or

iii. It is unreasonable or impractical to do so.

5.5 At the time of collection (or as soon as practical thereafter) UOW Enterprises will take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is aware of:

i. The identity of UOW Enterprise and how to contact the organisation;

ii. The fact that individuals are able to obtain access to their information;

iii. The purpose for which that information is being held;

iv. The organisations (or type of organisation) to which UOW Enterprises may disclose information of that kind;

v. Any law(s) which require the information to be collected; and

vi. The main consequences for the individual if all or part of the information is not provided or is incorrect (if applicable).

5.6 UOW Enterprise will not collect sensitive information, including health information, unless:
6 Use and disclosure of information

6.1 UOW Enterprises will only use and disclose information for the primary purpose of collection, unless use or disclosure for another purpose is lawfully permitted or require, or the person whose information is being disclosed has consented to the disclosure.

6.2 UOW Enterprises will only disclose information about an individual to third parties (including their related entities and/or government agencies) without an individual’s consent in limited circumstances, including:

i. Where the information is directly related to the purpose for which it is collected and UOW Enterprises have no reasons to believe that the person would object to its disclosure;

ii. The individual is reasonably likely to have been aware, of has been made aware, that information of that kind is usually disclosed to the third party and related entities;

iii. UOW Enterprises believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and/or imminent threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person;

iv. Exchanging information for law enforcement purposes, or for the protection of public revenue; or

v. Disclosure is required by law.

7 Access, Accuracy and Amendment

7.1 UOW Enterprises takes all reasonable steps to ensure that the information it holds is complete and accurate.

7.2 A person can access their information and request the correction of information.

7.3 UOW Enterprises will respond to a request for access within a reasonable period.

7.4 UOW Enterprises will not deny access unless it would be unreasonable or impractical to fulfil the request.

7.5 Where access is denied, written reasons for the refusal must be provided to the individual.
7.6 Individuals have the right to appeal a refusal under the relevant grievance policy.
